

HAY HO! 39A

Hereford - Hay on Wye
Sunday & Bank Holidays

NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT

HAY HO! 39A is the new Sunday bus service with reduced fares running between Hereford and Hay-on-Wye on Sundays and Bank Holidays. Bus times line up with key train arrivals and departures at Hereford station.

Like most other rural buses, HAY HO! needs financial support to keep it going and keep fares low. We want local communities to enjoy, be proud and support the service – so please become an individual supporter for just £5!

WHAT IS SPECIAL ABOUT HAY HO!

HAY HO!...is not the same as other buses. It runs because a group of organisations and residents on the route have clubbed together to make it happen. It is operated by Yeomans Canyon Travel on behalf of the Hay Tourism Group, which manages the project with Rail for Herefordshire and the Herefordshire Ramblers.

Timetables are available at Tourist Information centres or www.herefordshire.gov.uk or www.powysbus.info or traveline.info

BECOME A SUPPORTER

It only costs £5 per year for an individual supporter subscription so that we can keep Hay Ho! going.

We are keen to get businesses and other groups on board too. A year's subscription is only £20.

In return we'll send you a quarterly newsletter and let you know about any events or discounts we've arranged. Most importantly your support will allow us to build on our successes in coming years.
